Query Expansion from external:

The input file is queries.txt external/ folder which contains all the data I copied from google search results
The output file is addtedTermsFromExternal.txt

The main function is in the class Test3.java

The file structure is very similar to query expansion from indri returns.